

SALMÓ

A top-down view of two pieces of cooked salmon fillets resting on a dark, textured slate surface. The salmon is a vibrant orange-pink color, showing a moist texture with some charring and seasoning. Each piece is garnished with a small sprig of fresh green dill. In the top-left corner, there is a wedge of yellow lemon. In the bottom-right corner, another wedge of lemon is visible. The entire scene is scattered with small white salt crystals and black pepper granules.
